Who it's for

Do you have some experience of painting or drawing? Would you like to have the opportunity to create in the grounds of Mount Congreve Gardens, meet other artists, paint alongside experienced guest artists and show the work you create to the visitors of Mount Congreve in a pop-up 'Exhibition on Easels'? If so, grab your easel and paints and come along!

Pop-up 'Exhibition on Easels'

The 'Exhibition on Easels' will take place in the grounds of Mount Congreve on Saturday May 4 from 3pm to 5pm, and Sunday May 5 throughout the day, allowing participating artists to display their work on their easels to visitors in the gardens. Artists may also offer their work for sale.

Only work produced on site on the day can be shown in the pop-up 'Exhibition on Easels'.

A 15% commission on each sale applies, which will be contributed towards the ongoing maintenance of the gardens. Each artist is responsible for their own sales. We suggest that apart from accepting cash, Revolut is a handy payment method.

The guest artists will form an impromptu jury and select work for prizes in different categories.

Lunch

Participating artists may bring their own lunch on the day. Please note, there are no bins on the grounds, so each artist will be responsible for taking away their own litter.

There is a special ticket option to book an artist picnic. This will be catered by the Pantry at CLIFF. Artists will be invited to join the artist picnic (bring your own blanket or folding chair) at a designated location in the gardens from 2pm - 2.45pm.
